

THE QUEST BEGINS

Destination

Basecamp

Visual Cue

Place the map image near the Question Chest so kids feel they are beginning a real expedition.

Big Question

Why do questions matter?

Big Discovery

God welcomes our seeking and gives us light.

Remember-Me Verse

Psalms 119:105

The Big Lie

Questions are dangerous, embarrassing, or too big for kids.

The Big Truth

A good question can become a quest that leads us toward God's light.

Before Sunday

Read Luke 2:41-52 and Psalm 119:105. Pray for courage to welcome honest questions without rushing kids toward shallow answers.

Gather: Bible, Question Chest, index cards, pencils, map image, Week 1 puzzle

1. Welcome & Zest Check

5 min

Greet every Quester by name. Ask: 'What is one thing you wondered about this week?' Award Zest for brave, thoughtful, or wonderfully curious answers.

2. The Provision Box

8-10 min

Show the Question Chest. Explain that a question is like a closed box: something true may be waiting inside, but we open it carefully. Let each child write or draw one big question and place it in the chest.

Leader Cue: We are not afraid of big questions because God is not afraid of them. A Quester asks, seeks, listens, and follows the light God gives.

3. Consulting the Map

15 min

Read Luke 2:46. Point out that Jesus listened and asked questions as a child. Then read Psalm 119:105. Explain that God's Word is a lamp: it may not show every mile of the trail, but it gives light for the next faithful step.

4. Campfire Questions

8–10 min

- What makes a question helpful?
- What can we do when we do not understand something about God?
- Where should a Quester look for truth first?

5. Quest Activity

12–15 min

Decorate Quest Card bookmarks with Psalm 119:105 or open the Week 1 puzzle. Stamp or draw a tiny map mark on each card so every child leaves with a first-step trail marker.

6. Remember–Me Verse

5 min

Say Psalm 119:105 while pretending to hold a lantern. Repeat it quieter each time, like Questers walking carefully through the dark.

Mission Hub Integration

- Open the curriculum draft if you need the full series overview.
- Use the Week 1 puzzle as an early finisher activity.
- Show the map image and point to the destinations ahead.

Pray: God, thank You that we can ask honest questions. Help us follow the light of Your Word. Amen.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

Destination

Identity Island

Visual Cue

Use Quester close-up art as the 'guide on the transmission' for Identity Island.

Big Question

Who in the world am I?

Big Discovery

I find myself by knowing the One who made me.

Remember-Me Verse

John 8:12

The Big Lie

I can find out who I am by staring into my own heart.

The Big Truth

I find out who I am by following the Light of the World.

Before Sunday

Read John 8:12 and John 1:12. Practice explaining identity as who I truly am, where I belong, and who gets to tell me the truth about myself.

Gather: Bible, basketball or ball, optional flashlight, identity stickers/cards, Week 2 puzzle

1. Welcome & Zest Check

5 min

Greet every Quester at the door. Ask: 'What is one word you'd use to describe a treasure hunter?' Award Zest for adventurous answers.

2. The Provision Box

8-10 min

Show a basketball. Ask what its identity is. Does the ball decide it is a basketball, or does the game it was made for define it?

Leader Cue: A ball does not find its purpose by looking inside its own rubber middle. It needs the context of the game. We need the context of our Maker.

3. Consulting the Map

15 min

Read John 8:12 and John 1:12. Say that if the world is a dark cave, we cannot clearly see who we are. Jesus is the light. In His light, we see that believers are not just kids, students, or performers; they are children of God.

4. Campfire Questions

8–10 min

- Where do kids sometimes look to figure out who they are?
- Why can our feelings be real but not always reliable guides?
- Does God love you because you are brave, or can you become brave because God loves you?

5. Quest Activity

12–15 min

Use identity stickers, character cards, or the Quester character assets. Let kids pick a trait they want to grow in, such as courage, kindness, patience, or wisdom. Remind them the trait does not earn God's love; it grows from being loved by God.

6. Remember-Me Verse

5 min

Have one child lead with a flashlight while the others follow and recite John 8:12.

Mission Hub Integration

- Launch the Identity song for a group sing-along.
- Use the Cave of Confusion local clip or VBS time-gated clip if available.
