Remember-Me Verse

1 Samuel 16:7

The Big Lie

What people see and say about me is the truest thing about me.

The Big Truth

God sees deeper than the mirror, the crowd, and the mood of the day.

Before Sunday

Read 1 Samuel 16:7 and the full Bible focus for the session. Pray for kids to meet God's truth with curiosity and trust.

Gather: Bible, mirror, sticky notes, markers, Week 3 puzzle

1. Welcome & Zest Check

5 min

Greet every Quester by name. Ask a question connected to today's quest: "Who gets to define me?" Keep it conversational and award Zest for brave participation.

2. The Provision Box

8-10 min

Place sticky notes around a mirror with words like popular, smart, funny, left out, and good enough. Ask whether a mirror can tell the whole truth about a person.

Leader Cue: Keep the Bible open as the Map. Your goal is not to impress kids with answers, but to help them follow the light God gives.

3. Consulting the Map

15 min

Read 1 Samuel 16:7 and Galatians 1:10. Explain that people often judge quickly by what they can see, but God sees truly. Pleasing people makes a poor compass; God's voice tells the truth.

4. Campfire Questions

8–10 min

- What do we learn about God from this passage?
- What wrong idea does today's Big Lie teach?
- How can today's Big Truth change the way we live this week?

5. Quest Activity

12–15 min

Replace mirror labels with truth notes: known by God, made in God's image, invited by Jesus, loved before I perform.

6. Remember-Me Verse

5 min

Read 1 Samuel 16:7 aloud. Let kids echo it phrase by phrase, then say it with a motion connected to the lesson.

Mission Hub Integration

- Open the Week 3 puzzle from the Mission Hub.
- Use the media button for the week's song or clip if time allows.
- Open the coloring sheet slot when your weekly artwork is ready.

Pray over the Questers by name if possible. Send them out with courage, kindness, and a next step of faith.
